Key Marco Cat Smithsonian Exhibition

9:00am-4:00pm

Who would have imagined a tiny cat could travel through time and over 1,000 miles to return to its birthplace on Marco Island in Southwest Florida?

For the first time in more than 100 years, the wandering feline is reunited on Marco Island with other rare artifacts discovered there in 1896 during a Smithsonian sponsored archaeological expedition led by archaeologist and anthropologist Frank Hamilton Cushing. The exhibit is the culmination of a 25-year vision to bring these incredibly important artifacts back to Marco Island in order to educate and inspire people of all ages about the fascinating history of the region. Admission is free. Marco Island Historical Museum 180 S. Heathwood Drive, Marco Island 239-389-6447

Summer Sizzle SWFL Restaurant Week

With over 70 participating restaurants offering three-course prix-fixe dinner menus with special upgrades and deals starting at just $26 or $36 this is regional favorite event.

The goal of Restaurant Week is to encourage people to visit the best LOCAL restaurants during a normally slow time of year and help expose people of Collier, Lee and surrounding counties to our amazing SWFL restaurants!

The best thing about the Sizzle SWFL Restaurant Week is that $1.00 from every Restaurant Week meal (lunch or dinner) sold will be donated to the Sizzle SWFL FGCU Food & Beverage Scholarship!

4 EASY STEPS TO PARTICIPATE IN RESTAURANT WEEK

1. Go to www.SizzleSWFL.com and pick your city
2. Look through all the menus and pick a restaurant
3. Make a reservation. (Not always needed but recommended)
4. When you arrive, order from the Restaurant Week prix fixe menu

Kids Free Fridays at Rookery Bay Environmental Learning Center

9:00am-1:00pm

This popular summer education program provides FREE admission and programming geared toward children ages 12 and younger. We recommend a ratio of no more than three kids per adult to ensure a safe and pleasurable experience.

The theme for 2019 is "Summer of Science." Each week will feature a different naturalist talking about the local environment and animals. In addition to the craft rooms, story time, feature film and naturalist presentation, there will be two labs offered each Friday, giving kids an opportunity to learn how to cast a fishing rod and "read" a fish.

Admission is free for children 12 and under; must be accompanied by an adult.

Adult admission is $5 (free for members).

Find a spot anywhere along Naples Beach for the annual New Year's Eve fireworks, blasting off from Naples Pier. Most area boat sightseeing tours offer passage to watch the fireworks from the water vantage point. Advance reservations are required for boat excursions. Taxis, limos, and ride share services are highly recommended instead of driving and parking at beach areas.

*PARKING STATEMENT: Naples Police and Emergency Services would like to remind the public that parking enforcement will take place in marked "No Parking" areas with close attention given to blocked intersections and fire hydrants. Violator's vehicles are subject to towing and impoundment. Everyone is encouraged to use the public parking in the Third Street South and Fifth Avenue South areas and to respect other's property and not block driveways or park on private property without the owner's consent. Parking meters are enforced daily between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. and no parking after 11:00 p.m. is allowed at the beach ends.

13th Annual Run for the Paws 5K

8:00am-11:00am

Lace up your shoes, leash up your dog (cats in strollers welcome, too!) and join us for the Annual Run for the Paws to raise money and awareness for Humane Society Naples, Southwest Florida's premier no-kill animal shelter.

This is a family-friendly and dog-friendly event.

Thousands of human participants and their canine companions have taken part in this race, providing our community with a healthy and fun event that gets bigger and better every year. The scenic, flat course ensures that first time walkers and runners can comfortably participate alongside more serious runners. Along with the race, the day will feature many area vendors, live music, award ceremony, Groupiebooth and more.
