Key Marco Cat Smithsonian Exhibition

9:00am-4:00pm

Who would have imagined a tiny cat could travel through time and over 1,000 miles to return to its birthplace on Marco Island in Southwest Florida? For the first time in more than 100 years, the wandering feline is reunited on Marco Island with other rare artifacts discovered there in 1896 during a Smithsonian sponsored archaeological expedition led by archaeologist and anthropologist Frank Hamilton Cushing. The exhibit is the culmination of a 25-year vision to bring these incredibly important artifacts back to Marco Island in order to educate and inspire people of all ages about the fascinating history of the region. Admission is free. Marco Island Historical Museum 180 S. Heathwood Drive, Marco Island 239-389-6447

New Year's Eve Fireworks

7:30pm-8:00pm

Find a spot anywhere along Naples Beach for the annual New Year's Eve fireworks, blasting off from Naples Pier. Most area boat sightseeing tours offer passage to watch the fireworks from the water vantage point. Advance reservations are required for boat excursions. Taxis, limos, and ride share services are highly recommended instead of driving and parking at beach areas.

*PARKING STATEMENT: Naples Police and Emergency Services would like to remind the public that parking enforcement will take place in marked "No Parking" areas with close attention given to blocked intersections and fire hydrants. Violator's vehicles are subject to towing and impoundment. Everyone is encouraged to use the public parking in the Third Street South and Fifth Avenue South areas and to respect other's property and not block driveways or park on private property without the owner's consent. Parking meters are enforced daily between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. and no parking after 11:00 p.m. is allowed at the beach ends.

Free Kids Fishing Clinic at Naples Pier

9:00am-1:00pm

The Kids' Fishing Clinic is a one-day educational event conducted by the Marine Industries Association of Collier County Foundation, with the help of the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission (FWC). The primary goal of this program is to create responsible marine resource stewards by teaching children about Florida's marine ecosystems and ethical angling skills. The Clinic also teaches fundamental saltwater fishing knowledge and skills while promoting a positive fishing experience.

Registration is free and sign up starts at 9 a.m. and continues through Noon. The clinic ends at 1 p.m. Kids must go through five educational skill sessions - tackle, touch tank, casting, knot tying and good angler - then it's time for them to fish from the pier with the help of many dedicated volunteers.
